

Speaker Profile

Felix Chevalier, Founding Member of The Chevalier Law Firm

Felix Chevalier, Founding Member of The Chevalier Law Firm, PLLC, is an experienced business and government affairs attorney representing companies in a cross section of industries, including energy, manufacturing, transportation, engineering, technology and healthcare. He is adept at facilitating complex business development matters and structuring public-private partnerships.

Felix advises companies seeking to enter the Cuban market. As a first-generation Cuban-American, Felix is able to combine his legal expertise with his first-hand cultural knowledge of Cuba. Felix has travelled extensively to the island over the past 20+ years, participating in and hosting official delegations and trade missions to Cuba, representing local governments, national associations and various industries.

Felix is a sought-after voice on the current U.S.-Cuba state of affairs, speaking at conferences and events. He has been profiled in Cuba Business Report, Houston Business Journal, OnCuba and Cuba Trade Magazine for his continued advocacy for normalized trade relations. Felix's civic engagement includes serving as a member of Engage Cuba, a national coalition of private companies and organizations seeking to lift the U.S. trade and travel embargo on Cuba.

Felix received his Juris Doctor from St. John's University School of Law in New York, his Bachelor of Arts from the State University of New York at New Paltz College and completed an Executive Education Program at the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College in New Hampshire. Felix is a native New Yorker residing in Houston Texas, with offices in Houston and Washington, D.C., USA.
